

A LOCAL Ontario food EXPERIENCE

In the beginning, when I envisioned Culinarium, I thought of it as a community centre for foodies, a meeting place for passionate local eaters. And I am pleased and proud to say that, in many ways and to many of us, that is exactly what Culinarium is - a place to share convivial conversation about your latest delicious local meal and chat of food, farm and fork.

But in some ways my vision of Culinarium has not yet come to fruition. We can make a greater impact, reach a broader audience, and fill more dinner plates with the wonder that is Ontario food. We are turning the corner, we're nearing the tipping point, I'm sure of it; positive signs are there. Help us realize the dream: help us fill your dinner plate with sustainable Ontario food for years to come.

Yes, I want to join the Culinarium Shared Dinner Plate
